John Bond

I WAS disappointed, to say the least, about our failure to defeat Brentford after going in at half-time with a two-goal lead.

I had seen signs of problems arising just before the interval and I warned the players in the dressing-room, but sadly we had to be content with a point when a win was really there for the taking.

At a meeting with the players a couple of days later the importance of having a professional attitude all the time, not just in spasms, was underlined. We've done well over the last few months to lift ourselves towards the promotion places in the Third Division, but my feeling after the 2-2 draw with Brentford was that if the players were going to be so unprofessional it would be sad for them, me, the club and our supporters.

It was a nothing sort of performance in the second-half. We just didn't play it right at all. Our home record remained very good but we must guard against the type of thing which happened in that match.

I sensed an air of despondency among some people afterwards. Just because we had dropped a couple of points it was as if they felt there was nothing left in the season!

I didn't see it that way at all, and we played very much better last Tuesday to defeat Exeter here at Turf Moor with Dennis Tueart knocking in an early penalty and Brian Flynn, Micky Phelan and new signing Wayne Biggins all scoring very good goals in the last 23 minutes.

After the events in the previous match, there was a lot of pressure on the players in the Exeter game because it was so vital that we won.

Their response was superb and they produced a strong, battling team performance, highlighted by their second-half dominance and a splendid contribution from Wayne Biggins.

We signed Wayne from Matlock Town to give us cover in attack but he got an early first team opportunity because of the injury to Kevin Reeves which will keep him out for the remainder of the season.

I was pleased with Wayne against Brentford, and he made a pretty good debut in the circumstances. And in the Exeter game I was very impressed with him. He crowned everything with his headed goal which was a bonus for him and for the team.

Tonight we play in the Associate Members' Cup for the first time and welcome Bolton Wanderers. We had a memorable League game against them in September and look forward to meeting them again in the return fixture at the end of next month.

ON the fringe of the promotion race for most of the season, Bolton's young hopefuls look to be running out of steam. Beaten 2-0 at home last week by Lincoln City they now have a lot to do to catch the leading group.

Wanderers opened with a 2-0 win at home over Wimbledon, won by the same score at Bradford and followed that by thrashing Milk Cup semi-finalists Walsall 8-1! They have failed to match their excellent home form away from Burnden Park.

Few sides can afford to part with players of the calibre of Peter Reid and Tony Henry, but with finance calling the tune at Bolton, last summer saw an exodus of senior players from the club.

Player-manager John McGovern has shown, however, that the youngsters are worthy of a place and his signing of striker Tony Caldwell from non-league Northern Premier side Horwich R.M.I. must rate as the master touch of the season.

One of the game's most respected players, JOHN MCGOVERN skippered the Nottingham Forest side to a League Championship and two European and League Cup successes. His approach to the game has always been one of dedication and determination — qualities his young players have learned to respect.

In goal Chorley-born SIMON FARNWORTH was given his first team chance this season with Jim McDonagh moving on to Division One side Notts County. Signed as cover for the number one position JOHN PLATT had seven seasons at Oldham, making over 100 appearances before moving to Bury last year.

At right-back BRIAN BORROWS was signed from Everton for a small fee just before the transfer deadline last season. A number of games for the Division One side brought him to the attention of several clubs and the Liverpool-born youngster has already proved his worth to the Wanderers. On the opposite flank RAY DEAKIN joined the Wanderers in the summer of 1982 from Port Vale. Another player to have started his career at Everton he is equally at home in the midfield berth.

At the centre of the defence PETER VALENTINE has formed an excellent understanding with Northern Ireland international GERRY McELHINNEY. Valentine joined Bolton last summer as part of the deal which saw former skipper Paul Jones move to Huddersfield. McElhinney, always a favourite with the Burnden fans, has had a tremendous season highlighted by his first cap in the Northern Ireland's great win in West Germany.

In midfield the teenage trio of WARREN JOYCE, STEVE THOMPSON and NEIL REDFEARN have made up for their lack of experience with plenty of honest endeavor. Joyce is the son of the former Burnley wing half Walter who is currently Wanderers chief coach. Thompson and Redfearn both made their senior debut away from home last season and have continued to make good progress.

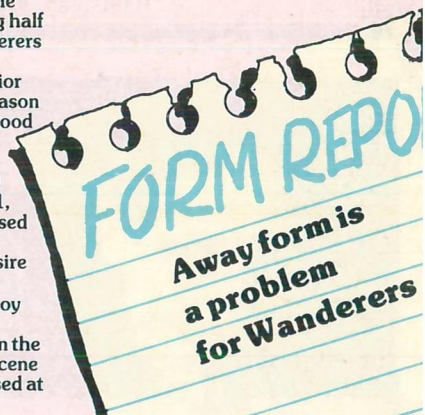

Play-anywhere JEFF CHANDLER was signed from Leeds United in October, 1981, as a wingman. He has impressed the fans with his abundance of skill and control and his desire to be involved in the game.

Up front former local schoolboy WAYNE FOSTER has commanded a regular place in the side since he came on to the scene in the 81/82 season. Recognised at international level, he got his first England youth cap in Scotland in a European Championship qualifier.

With his record-breaking scoring feats in non-league football it was no surprise that TONY CALDWELL attracted the attention of many league outfits. Originally signed on part-time terms, his ability to find the net in the early games led to him being offered a full-time contract.

A bad injury meant he missed the games over Christmas and could only watch the 3-0 cup defeat by Sunderland from the sub's bench. In and out of the side, SIMON RUDGE won the hearts of the Bolton fans with his terrier-like qualities last season. He scored three goals in his 21 appearances and did enough to suggest he has a sound future in the game.

Mini-Weekend

AS most of you will know we organised a mini-weekend for the game at Plymouth Argyle and it proved to be a great success. We are now negotiating another mini-weekend which will this time take in TWO away matches, Newport County and Bournemouth.

Fan fare

An executive coach will leave Turf Moor on Saturday morning, April 7, for the game at Newport and immediately after the game will take fans on to a luxury hotel in Bournemouth where bed and breakfast will be arranged for Saturday and Sunday nights.

The Bournemouth game is on Monday evening, April 9th, and the coach will return home immediately after the game arriving back in Burnley in the early hours of Tuesday morning. Departure times and prices have yet to be arranged and these details will be announced as soon as possible. Please note that Supporters Club members will be given priority and non-members will pay extra. So if you want to travel on the two match mini-weekend join the Supporters' Club. It's only £2 per year.

● We reported in the last match-day magazine that we were looking into the possibility of chartering a plane for the game at Bournemouth. Unfortunately we have had to abandon this idea because of the price which would be in the region of £85 per person. I am sure you will agree that it is far too expensive.

Puzzle PAGE

HERE'S a quiz with a difference . . . five questions to give you something to puzzle over. It could be a poser to wrestle with at half-time or it could give you something to ponder in those spare moments at work, at home or over a pint. The answers will be given in the next programme.

1. Which Lancashire club holds the record for losing the most number of successive home games in the Football League?
2. Which clubs did Malcolm Allison, now manager at Middlesbrough, serve as a player?
3. Who holds the record of being the oldest player to appear in a First Division League game?
4. Name the only two Football League clubs whose record transfer fee paid is less than £10,000?
5. Who holds the record for making the most appearances for England 'B' internationals?

Answers to quiz in Exeter programme.

1. Peterborough United play at London Road; Northampton Town play at County Ground, and Walsall at Fellows Park. 2. Cardiff City are the only non-English to win the FA Cup. 3. Tottenham were the last side to score double figures in a league game when they beat Everton 10-4 in 1958. 4. Paulo Rossi was at the centre of the Italian betting scandal in 1979. 5. Coventry City have appeared in all six divisions of the Football League.

FA CUP

To be arranged: Hull City (h)

SINCE manager John Bond joined us last June, we've got used to new faces coming along to join the staff both on the playing and coaching sides of the business.

But last week it was story of outgoings with several young players being released from Mr Bond's plans.

The departures bring the full-time professional list down to 19 and first to go was 23-year-old goalkeeper Billy O'Rourke.

Billy has had some fine games at various levels of the club but, we fear, he may always remember Burnley for some of the worst moments in his career.

The nightmare of a bad team performance at Queen's Park Rangers, when he had to pick the ball out of his net seven times, and the goal scored against him by his opposite number at Bolton are sure to linger in Billy's mind.

They're just part and parcel of a goalkeeper's life — and he may not always be responsible for the situations he has to face — so we hope that, in the remainder of his career, Billy remembers too, some of the good times at Turf Moor.

Others who have left us this last week are full-backs Andy Wharton and Lee Dixon midfielder Chris Grimshaw of Accrington, along with Paul Renton, and full-time professional Chris Curran.

TOUGH luck, Kevin. Regretfully, a second medical opinion has now confirmed that Kevin Reeves will not be able to play again this season although our striker was determined to shrug off the stress fracture of the hip and get back to our promotion drive.

THE goal which Dennis Tueart scored against Brentford at Turf Moor ten days ago certainly got the fans talking.

That superb centre from skipper Tommy Hutchison and the lethal finish from Dennis's head provided a spectacular moment for the fans even if the end of the game brought disappointment as Clarets were held to a 2-2 draw after going two up.

Kevin Reeves ... injury blow
